

Phytophthora ramorum – What symptoms to look out for by visual inspection

Disease Symptoms – Ornamental Plants

Viburnum dieback and leaf necrosis

Leucothoe leaf necrosis

Kalmia leaf blight

Lilac leaf necrosis

Pieris dieback and leaf necrosis

Heavily infected Rhododendron

Rhododendron leaf base necrosis

Infected re-growth from a Rhododendron stump

Infected Rhododendron bush next to an infected holm oak (Q. ilex)

Camellia leaf necrosis & wilting

Camellia leaf blight

Yew leaf blight (next to a healthy stem)

Photos © Crown copyright, courtesy of PHSI, CSL and Forest Research

Disease Symptoms – Trees

Close up of lesions on Nothofagus sp. (Southern beech) showing lesions in the inner bark

Extensive bleeding on the root flares of a mature beech tree

Bleeding canker on Q. falcata (American southern red oak)

Q. ilex (holm oak) aerial blight

Q. ilex (holm oak) infected foliage

Fraxinus excelsior (Ash) infected foliage

Photos © Crown copyright, courtesy of PHSI, CSL and Forest Research

SCOTTISH EXECUTIVE

Department of Agriculture and Rural Development
www.dardni.gov.uk

